Ala Kai

a bed & breakfast by the sea

Ala Kai, in Hawaiian, means by the sea or road by the sea. Once you see this beautiful home, you will understand why we chose that name.

Start your Hawaiian vacation memories at Ala Kai.

We are located at Kaloli Point on the rugged Puna Peninsula. Ala Kai Bed & Breakfast and Vacation Cottage is a scenic 17 mile drive south of the Big Island of Hawaii's Hilo airport and 25 miles northeast of Volcanoes National Park.

Our Guest Rooms

Let the sounds of the ocean and palm trees lull you to sleep in one of our beautiful guestrooms or suite. Your private entrance to the lanai allows you to star gaze, greet the sunrise over the ocean, whale watch or take it easy with a book. Be sure to take a dip in our salt water pool. Each room has cable TV, DVD player and wireless internet connection. The shared sitting room includes a DVD and reading library, board games and puzzles. Coolers, beach chairs, and beach towels are available upon request. Children over 12 years only please.

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast served between 7:30 and 9:00 am featuring local fruits, Kona coffee, teas, juice and much more. Please specify if you have special dietary restrictions. If you want an early start for that morning hike or other activity, cereal, yogurt and beverages are available upon request.

Your Host

The Ala Kai bed & breakfast is owned and hosted by Mary Roblee.

Mary, a retired executive manager, is a world traveler who has lived in Thailand and was a Peace Corps volunteer in Senegal. She enjoys hiking, writing, reading, movies, cooking, snorkeling and going to the beach. After moving to Hawaii in 2001, Mary decided that the Big Island's windward coast is where she wants to live. Mary is a published author under the pen name of Kate Lindman.

"It was great staying at a place so far away from home and yet still feeling just as comfortable. Your place and kindness will definitely be spoken about back home."

"The wonderful accommodations, incredible breakfasts and great hospitality went above and beyond our expectations."

"It has been a pleasure to stay in your lovely house, in this beautiful setting. Everything was just right from the comfy bed to the great breakfast!!"
